

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

SOMERS

SOMERS, Wis., December 2.—The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Albert Bullmore on Wednesday afternoon of this week, December 4.

Rev. Lucy delivered an excellent sermon at the Methodist church on Sunday morning. During the month of December the union evening service will be held at the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron A. Gould spent Thanksgiving with their daughter in Chicago.

Miss Jeannette Garratt of Milwaukee, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Garratt over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Biehn and daughter of Union Grove, visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. Cook the latter part of the week.

Miss Minnie L. Gibson of the Milwaukee public schools, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with her mother.

Miss Belle Booth has returned to her school duties in Chicago after spending the Thanksgiving vacation with Misses Harriet and Annie Spence.

William Stout is critically ill, suffering from Bright's disease at the home of his cousin, William Wentland.

Miss Janet Miller, who is attending Racine High school, spent the Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Miss Marie Wirtz has accepted a position in Kenosha.

Misses Lizzie and Malvina Gitzlaff and brother William, of Kenosha, spent Thanksgiving day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Gitzlaff, on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. John Swartz Jr. entertained a large company of friends and relatives in honor of their son, Harold. The evening was most enjoyably spent in social converse, music and games. Refreshments were served.

Harold Swartz has gone to Madison where he will attend the short course of agriculture.

On Friday evening of this week, December 6, a masquerade ball will be given at Wandlun Hall.

August Gitzlaff spent Saturday in Kenosha.

E. Cook spent Saturday in Kenosha.

Jacob Barrows has purchased a Wisconsin gasoline engine.

Eric Jensen and Charles Johnson have returned from a hunting trip in the northern part of the state. Eric brought home a fine deer.

The marriage of Miss Rose Lichter, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lichter, to Arthur Murray, was celebrated at St. George's church, Kenosha, at seven o'clock, on Wednesday morning, November 27, 1912. Rev. Father Nickel officiating in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Madeline Lichter, while Frank Lichter, a brother of the bride, served as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray left for the South immediately after the ceremony, where they will spend the honeymoon. The bride is one of Somers' most popular young ladies, a talented musician. The groom is a rising young business man. After December 7 they will be at home in Dixon, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob J. Barrows and daughters, and Mrs. George Steber and daughter spent Saturday afternoon in Racine.

Misses Etha and Florence Larned of Milwaukee, spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Larned.

Fred Plancher will hold an auction on Tuesday, December 10, to dispose of his stock and farm implements, etc.

Misses Elsie and Margaret Gibbons of Kenosha, spent the Thanksgiving vacation with their grandmother, Mrs. Elsie Gibbons.

Among those from Somers who attended the family gathering held at the home of the Misses Mackay and Felle Robertson in Kenosha on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bullmore and daughter Marie; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley and Marcus Linnington.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Co. is putting in an automatic electrical block signal system along its road.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Becker on Thanksgiving evening.

SOMERS, Nov. 30.—Wednesday afternoon of next week, Dec. 5, Mrs. Albert Bullmore will entertain the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church.

Arthur Garratt spent Thanksgiving with the home folks.

Miss Lavina Bailey is spending the week end with friends at Union Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rasmussen and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rasmussen and sons spent Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Christensen in Paris.

Mrs. J. William Miller and son have been visiting with friends in Racine for several days.

Alfred Garratt purchased a horse in Milwaukee on Tuesday.

The neighboring schools are enjoying the Thanksgiving vacation.

Fred Dunsing, Jr. spent Tuesday in Racine.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman J. Strong spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bishop and family at Zion City, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Bullmore and daughter Helen spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Silver in Racine.

Earl Yale and William Krenschler departed for Madison Friday, where they will attend the short course of agriculture.

Misses Harriet and Annie Spence entertained at dinner on Thanksgiving Day. Those present were: Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Bishop and son Spence, and Miss Belle Booth of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Yale entertained

WIND POINT

WIND POINT, Nov. 30.—Mr. Geo. Glender spent Sunday at Milwaukee, visiting friends.

Mrs. Frank Cole spent Sunday at Racine, visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Talkenbach of Kenosha, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. Jensen.

Mr. Joe Lloyd spent Sunday at Racine.

Bungard Bros. have completed Mr. John Wisnau's barn.

Mrs. M. Jauhl and children spent a few days at Milwaukee visiting relatives.

Miss Julia Polezal spent Tuesday at Racine with her sister, Mrs. Shumacher.

Mr. J. W. Eifer left Wednesday for Chicago, where he expects to spend a few days with relatives.

Misses Rose and Julia Hauch spent Sunday with Mr. H. Straube.

Mrs. J. Gloede and children spent a few days with the Lepo family.

Miss P. Lepo spent Saturday and Sunday in Racine with Miss Janeson.

Mr. and Mrs. Seyferth of Racine, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Sebastian.

Mr. Frank Gatzke has accepted a position at Racine.

The "Miked Bunch," a well-known club of last year, have reorganized for the winter season. They held their first meeting of the season at Wm. N. Strasser's for the election of officers. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. Chas. Prunget; vice-president, Mrs. Blasec; secretary, Mrs. A. Strippler; treasurer, Mr. Ed Janeson; committee, Mr. Wm. Strasser, Joe Lloyd, Henry Lepo. They will hold their first annual con dance at Nestri's hall. Date will be announced later.

Misses Eva Thomas and Flossy Pilger are going to Rochester, Wis., Friday and Saturday to attend a teachers' meeting at the New Agricultural school.

Miss Laura Jacobson spent a few days at Racine visiting relatives.

Miss Alma Kaplan spent Thursday with Miss Anna Kaplan.

ROCHESTER

ROCHESTER, Nov. 26.—Mr. Albert Adams returned from Milwaukee last evening bringing his little daughter with her who successfully underwent an operation for appendicitis. Clarence White's little girl who has been seriously ill is reported some better.

Mrs. Thomas Bottomley after spending two weeks at the home of her brother, Ed Frost, returned to her home in Burlington last Saturday.

Wm. Foreman and family have moved on what is known as Cherry Hill farm where his son and family live.

Miss Irene Fraser entertained some twenty guests last week Monday evening in honor of her birthday.

Wm. Dalton after a few days' stay at home left last Friday to resume his work in the Atlas line of business.

The banquet under the auspices of Brotherhood of the Congregational society last Thursday was a decided success.

Thanksgiving will be observed in various ways by the thankful community.

Mrs. Merrill after spending some two weeks with her daughter at Mukewago returned home last week.

The church is now supplied with electric lights.

Some 40 attended a social dance in the Gehrand barn which was finished last Friday. A good time was reported.

L. McDonald who was called here by the death of his brother George, spent last week in Rochester.

ROCHESTER, Dec. 2.—The sad news of the death of Mrs. Thomas Allen Noble nee Olive Frost, Saturday, Dec. 1, of Detroit, Kansas, reached here the same day. The deceased was a sister of Edward Frost of this place and Mrs. Thomas Bottomley of Burlington.

Mr. Strong has recovered from a siege of the quincy.

Wm. Dalton spent Sunday at home. He left this morning for Iowa.

The first snow of the season came today.

James Jacobson returned to Madison after spending Thanksgiving with the Frost family.

James Aspinall entertained Thanksgiving. A number from here went to Burlington for the day.

Rev. Sawyer and family were entertained at Geo. Rowntree's home Thanksgiving.

Miss Connor went to Elkhorn last Thursday for an indefinite visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patten and Mrs. Merrill spent Thanksgiving at Mukewago.

The ladies of the Congregational society will hold their Christmas social Monday, Dec. 9 at 3 p. m. in the church parlors. A chicken supper will be served in the dining rooms from 6 to 8 p. m. after which the entertainment will be given. Come and bring your friends as we assure you a good time.

Miss Etha is visiting friends at Madison.

Miss Joseph Thwertree spent Thanksgiving with a family gathering at the Summers home. She returned to Racine today.

Hazel, the 8 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence White, passed away Nov. 26. She suffered for some two weeks and underwent an operation for appendicitis. Everything was done to relieve her but death claimed her. The funeral was held at Honey Creek last Friday and the remains interred in the Rochester cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert White of Kenosha, and Mrs. Wm. Durant of Racine, were among those out of town who attended the funeral.

Miss Alice Summer spent part of last week with the Loomis family in Burlington.

James Jacobson of Madison is a guest of the Frost family.

Miss Mabel Fredericksen spent Thanksgiving at home.

Miss Alana Ayres who is attending school at Evanston came home last Tuesday for six weeks' vacation.

Rev. and Mrs. Marsh of Burlington and Mrs. Day of Rockford spent last Saturday with Rev. Sawyer and family.

YORKVILLE

YORKVILLE, Nov. 29.—The towns people are taking it very quiet this morning. O. those turkey dinners yesterday. Among those who entertained were: McQuarrie and Steinhards, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Skewes, Mr. and Mrs. Will Vyvan, Miss Prudence Hocking, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Shunk, Mr. and Mrs. Reed.

Miss Alice Ward is spending Thanksgiving vacation with her home people at Whitewater.

Rev. Hilbourne and wife are spending the week end at Menominee Falls. Mr. George I. Christiansen spent Thanksgiving at Mr. Will Vyvan's.

Mr. and Mrs. Derrick West and daughter, Ruth, spent Thursday at Mr. Clinton Skewes.

Grandpa Hunter, of Raymond, was able to take Thanksgiving dinner with relatives of this place.

The Misses Bertha and Ella Quention, of South Milwaukee, are spending a few days at the home of Mr. N. Chambers.

The Yorkville league is planning taking charge of the services at North Cape, Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lasky Vyvan and daughter, Roberta, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. West of Union Grove.

Mr. Stuart Foss spent Thursday with friends in this place.

Mr. Fred Fritchen and family took Thanksgiving dinner at Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fritchen and children spent Thursday at McQuarrie and Steinhards.

Mr. Stuart Foss spent Thursday with friends in this place.

Mr. Fred Fritchen and family took Thanksgiving dinner at Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fritchen and children spent Thursday at McQuarrie and Steinhards.

Joshua Hocking and wife, of Kenosha, came out in their car Thursday.

YORKVILLE, Dec. 2.—The Misses Ella and Bertha Quention and brother Edward left for their home at South Milwaukee Sunday, after spending several days with their uncle, Mr. N. Chambers.

Robert Vyvan and sister Margaret spent Saturday and Sunday in the Rapids, the guests of Mrs. C. Reznars and family.

Rev. Hilbourne and wife will return from Menominee Falls today, having spent Thanksgiving at that place.

The funeral of the late M. C. Protts of Pasadena, Cal., took place at Racine Friday, interment in Yorkville cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Shephard and family of Waukesha spent the week end with relatives at this place.

The Yorkville league is expecting to entertain the Racine league very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hay and family, Mr. and Mrs. Schurman, Mrs. Adersen, Mrs. J. Mojdans and others, took tea at Mr. John Vyvan's Friday, having driven out from Racine to the funeral of Mr. Protts.

It is understood that some of our Yorkville ladies intend to attend the Rochester agricultural school this winter.

BURLINGTON

BURLINGTON, Nov. 27.—A serious accident occurred at the manual training rooms of the city high school Monday afternoon when George Brehm, the 15 year old son of Wm. Brehm had the two small fingers taken off his right hand. The boy was working on a rip saw after school hours and let his hand get on the saw which removed two fingers and cut the coris in the other two. It is thought these can be saved but will possibly be stiff. The boys are said to have been forbidden to touch the saw after hours as it was known to be dangerous.

Mrs. Geo. Zwickle died late yesterday afternoon at her home on Washington street after a short illness. Mrs. Zwickle leaves, besides her husband, three small children, the youngest but a few days old. Prior to her decease Mrs. Zwickle was Miss Clara Pihke and has always been very popular with her friends and prominent in Catholic church circles.

Mrs. F. When south of the city is very ill and physicians consider her recovery uncertain.

Mrs. Robert Southey is dangerously ill with the grippe. Dr. Frouty is in attendance.

Duck Ball, for several years one of the faithful city night watchmen, is suffering from pneumonia at the North hospital.

Mrs. Charles Stubbly was somewhat bruised about the face and head from a fall on Pine street. The walk was a few inches below grade and it being evening, Mrs. Stubbly did not see the step and fell heavily against the walk. She is confined to the house as a result of the shock.

The Eastern Star chapter made a trip to Elkhorn last night to enjoy the hospitality of the Elkhorn lodge. All report a most enjoyable evening.

James Sweeney and family have moved to Freeport where Mr. Sweeney has received the appointment of operator for the St. Paul road.

James Miller and family left Saturday for Montana where Mr. Miller will take up the business of land agent.

Many poultry rallies scheduled for this week contend the approach of Thanksgiving.

The biennial Thanksgiving fair of the St. Charles Congregation is in progress this week. That some idea of the magnitude of their fair may be had, the list one noted the church $2,000. The hall is lit up into various booths, the handsomest one this year being the fish pond which is a typical Dutch windmill, the girls within being in costume. The dining room down stairs will accommodate patrons for meals during the entire week. All manner of gifts and donations are received and disposed of these active workers and no effort is spared to make those fair features of business management as well as affording pleasure and amusement to those in attendance. That they are a success is testified to by the hundreds of visitors from surrounding towns and country side who are in daily attendance at the hall.

Dr. George Newell went to Chicago last week to undergo an operation on his hip. The fracture was inflicted over a year ago but the bones did not knit. These will now be fastened together with silver wires, and Dr. Newell's many friends will rejoice with him if he may again walk without the use of crutches.

BRISTOL

BRISTOL, Dec. 2.—Miss Mamie Goodwin of Milwaukee visited friends here the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Cass have gone to Miller, South Dakota, to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Larrabee spent Thanksgiving with relatives in New Munster.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lynch of Kenosha, visited relatives here, Wednesday evening.

Fred Stevens has gone up north on a hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weed visited at D. L. Burgess' last week.

Miss Nellie Wainholz of Kenosha, spent Thanksgiving with her parents here.

Miss Edith Snyder has resigned her position as school teacher in Somers and returned to her home here.

Mrs. Erwin Moore and children of Harvard spent the last of the week at Mrs. Turner's.

Florence Murdock of Racine spent her Thanksgiving vacation with her parents here.

Lee Gilbert of Hartford, Wis., was home for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wienke are visiting their daughter at Port Edwards.

Miss Eddy of Wheatland spent Sunday with Florence Price.

Miss Genevieve Shofitt spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Pleasant Prairie.

Don't forget the Ladies' Aid fair at the Bristol hall Friday afternoon and evening. All kinds of useful and fancy articles will be sold at bargain prices. Supper will be served at 5:30 and until all are served.

Frank Brady was up from Zion City over Sunday to see his father, who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pike and daughter Hazel, spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Chicago.

CALEDONIA

CALEDONIA, Dec. 2.—Miss Minnie Voigt of Milwaukee took Thanksgiving dinner with her home folks.

Miss Ceila Meyer spent a couple of days the past week with Miss Alvina Urban.

Mrs. Jacob Nutchie visited her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Klunkhammer Sunday afternoon.

Miss Katie Nutchie called on the Misses Voigt last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nickelson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Haeffner Jr. and daughter Miss Neida of Racine, visited some of their old friends here Thanksgiving day.

Miss Helen Voigt entertained at a Thanksgiving dinner last Thursday.

The mission which started Nov. 24 at St. Louis church, was given by the Rev. Redemptorist Fathers and was well attended throughout the week.

The wedding of Alexander Emmerick and Miss Matilda Rinke was held at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, in the presence of many friends and relatives. The bride was attended by her sister Rosa Rinke and the best man was Peter Emmerick. A reception and wedding dinner was given at the home of the bride. They have the best wishes from all for a long and happy married life.

A dance was held at Otto Clausen hall Saturday night.

Mrs. Mary Thelen spent a few weeks with relatives here.

Miss Leonard Thelen is visiting her brother, Leonard Thelen.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Emmerick entertained company the past week.

There was quite a number who returned company on Thanksgiving day in this vicinity.

The fine weather of the past week has enabled the farmers in this vicinity to haul most of their corn staw from the field.

Mrs. Fred Thelen of Milwaukee spent last Sunday with Caledonia relatives.

Miss Lena Nutchie of Milwaukee spent last Sunday with her mother.

William Thelen moved to the Kamdiol farm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thelen of New Munster, spent last Thursday and Friday with Sebastian Hall.

Miss Mackie Thelen of Milwaukee spent week with her brother, John Hall.

William Goebel will have a public sale on Dec. 10, having rented his farm to Alie Grumetich.

Joe Pinner is on the sick list.

The mission at St. Louis church closed Sunday evening with solemn services, and was well attended all week.

EAST COUNTY LINE

EAST COUNTY LINE, Nov. 26.—Mr. Rudy Messer and Mr. Ernest Raash of Racine spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wellus.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wohlust spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Happe of Oakwood.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Clinton a boy.

Henry Neiser is attending to business of New York at present.

Mr. Mihal has moved his belongings to Montana where he will make his future home.

Mrs. Henry Wohlust and son Edwin spent on evening with Grandpa and Grandpa Liddle.

Mr. Heppner Meisner has moved to Burlington where he is engaged in driving the Badger Medicine wagon.

Mr. Charles Roesslet transacted business at Jarroville one day recently.

TABOR

TABOR, N. E. 30.—Edward Meuce was operated on at the hospital, suffering from appendicitis.

Mr. Klofond has taken the airship and shipped it to Milwaukee.

The T. M. E. & L. Co. is giving new telegraph posts from South Milwaukee to Ives.

Mr. Emil Smotek is confined to his bed with a serious illness.

Miss Pearl Tremball was seen in this vicinity.

Mr. Carl Miodulsky is going to work G. P. Sura's farm.

Mr. G. P. Sura is going to move to the city. He has resided all his life on the farm.

William Kadler is attending Wisconsin Business College.

If you are troubled with chronic constipation, the mild and gentle effect of Chamberlain's Tablets makes them especially suited to your case. For sale by Red Cross Drug Co.

WOODWORTH

WOODWORTH, Dec. 2.—Rev. and Mrs. Corby visited old friends in this vicinity during the past week.

Mrs. Joslyn of Belden, Neb., after an absence of nineteen years, is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. D. Edwards and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stanley of Kenosha, spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Upton.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bullamore and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bullamore spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Nau.

Misses Lois and Edith Gray, who are attending school at the White-water normal, spent their Thanksgiving vacation at their home here.

Daniel Marsh spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Milwaukee.

The Sunday school of the Bristol and Paris church will hold its Christmas exercises at the church on Monday evening, Dec. 23.

The Ladies' Aid and Missionary society will meet with Mrs. R. B. Campbell next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence York and family attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Clausen of Pleasant Prairie last Saturday night.

On Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Remus occurred the marriage of their daughter, Mary, to Edward Hilloway. These young people have the best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy married life.

Mrs. Thomas McKenna is entertaining a cousin from Iowa.

NORTH CAPE

NORTH CAPE, Nov. 30.—Mrs. Martha Heins of Forest City, Iowa, is spending a few days at her brothers, P. H. Adland.

Mrs. J. A. Anderson has returned from a visit in Milwaukee and Racine.

There was a large crowd at the dance and oyster supper Thursday night. Among those from a distance were Dr. and Mrs. Hanson of Racine; Joe Christianson and an auto load of friends from Corliss, Dr. and Mrs. Nobles, Miss Allee Larson of Milwaukee, and Dr. Thompson of Racine.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Adland and Mrs. T. N. Adland spent Thanksgiving in Milwaukee.

Mrs. George Spillum and daughter Maggie and Clara were shopping in Milwaukee Wednesday.

The Lutheran Ladies' aid will be entertained by Mrs. Henry P. Johnson Thursday afternoon, Dec. 5.

John A. Anderson and niece Bernice spent Wednesday in Racine.

Miss Alva Earle of Honey Creek is a guest at Harry Apple's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Christensen entertained Thanksgiving day. Among those present were Mrs. N. M. Christensen and daughter Ilo and Miss Sophia Frederickson of Racine.

HERZOG'S CORNERS

HERZOG'S CORNERS, Dec. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. T. Paddock spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. L. Jones and family of Ives Grove.

Mrs. J. Davis was a Somers caller Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Topping and Clarence Smith spent Sunday with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Haigh spent Thanksgiving at J. S. Parsons.

Mr. Johnson of the M. Herzog farm has moved on the Burgess farm.

Walter Jones of Corliss called on Eric Hanson Saturday.

Chris Larsen lost a valuable horse recently.

Mrs. P. Klunkhammer spent Thursday and Friday with Somers relatives.

Mrs. Frank Bradley attended her brother's wedding in Paris last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weber entertained a number of relatives at dinner Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Joe Whyntoff and children of Caledonia is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley visited with their aunt in Kenosha Sunday.

Jner and Martin Nielson, Tom Paddock and J. S. Parsons were Racine callers one day last week.

Mrs. Frank Weber and Mrs. Joe Whyntoff were Racine shoppers Friday afternoon.

WIND LAKE

WIND LAKE, Dec. 2.—Miss Johanna Rasmussen of Racine spent Thanksgiving with her parents at this place.

Miss Naomi Anderson spent a couple of days in Milwaukee last week.

The Ladies' Aid society will have their annual sale Wednesday, Dec. 4th at the Lutheran parsonage.

Wedding bells will ring at Wind Lake in the near future.

John Brown's auction last Friday was largely attended.

Mrs. Martin Krostad is with the sick list.

Mrs. Wallace Hunter of Milwaukee, spent Thanksgiving with Albert Anderson.

Rev. O. E. Schmidt of Decorah, Iowa, spent a few days last week with friends at this place.

Mrs. Rev. Johnson spent Saturday and Sunday in Milwaukee.

The Ladies' Birthday club of this place were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Albert Malchance last Friday afternoon and evening.

IVES GROVE

IVES GROVE, Wis., Dec. 2.—A basketball game between the Ives Grove lodge team and the Ives Grove Regulars will be played at the hall Wednesday evening, Dec. 4th. The game will be followed by an oyster supper and other refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jones entertained Mr. and Mrs. Welsh of Yorkville, Mr. and Mrs. Baker and Messrs. John Lugg and William Rennie at a Thanksgiving dinner.

Walter and Delbert Crispian were guests of Racine relatives Thanksgiving day.

Misses Anna and Florence Vogt and Gertrude Boston attended the Teachers' meeting at Rochester the latter part of last week.

Miss Fay Fritchen is visiting with Racine relatives.

IVES GROVE, Wis., Nov. 29.—The Ives Grove Lodge will hold an oyster supper at the hall, Wednesday evening, Dec. 4th. The Lodge basketball team will play the Regulars. Everyone is cordially invited to come.

THOMPSONVILLE

THOMPSONVILLE, Wis., Dec. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dawson spent Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. Henry Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Goebel and family attended the wedding of their son at Cathoum on Thursday of last week.

Floyd Fritchen is spending a few days with his parents.

Several from this vicinity attended the dance at North Cape Thursday evening. All report a good time.

Miss Emma Perrin is spending a few days with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Overson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dawson.

Miss Agnes Fritchen attended the teachers' convention at Rochester last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Metcalf entertained at dinner on Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Stray who has been spending the past few weeks in Racine has returned to her home.

Miss Agnes Fritchen and Gladys Holz were Racine visitors last Saturday.

Chas. Fehr transacted business in Racine one day last week.

BRIGHTON

BRIGHTON, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Luke of the town of Burlington spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. N. Wagner.

Berna Wilson who is attending school at Milwaukee spent the week end at home.

Ed. Carroll and wife spent one day last week at the Tish home.

Mrs. Rainer and sons of Kenosha spent over Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Weber.

Mrs. Paul Verhalen and children and Willie Eblen of Milwaukee spent Thanksgiving with their mother, Mrs. G. Eblen.

Al Eblen and wife and Frank Arnold and wife spent Thursday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Arnold.

Henry Verhalen of Milwaukee spent Thanksgiving with Brighton friends and relatives.

Chas. Seitz and wife spent a few days at Racine with her mother and sisters.

HUSHER

HUSHER, Wis., Nov. 25.—Mrs. Fred Plancher has returned home after spending a few days visiting her son and family at New Butler, Wis.

A number of young people here attended the basket social at the Saint Louis Parish hall Wednesday evening.

Mr. Charles Chadok entertained a number of friends at his home Sunday evening.

Miss Addie Kroupa spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Ethel Peterka.

Miss Ethelone Rose visited with Mrs. H. Gast Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Novak, Jr., and children attended the wedding of his brother Saturday, Nov. 23.

Mrs. Frank Chadok and Arthur spent Saturday with Mrs. Henry Gast.

Miss Grace Plancher entertained Miss Florence Chadok Tuesday evening.

Miss Mayme Gradl has returned after spending a few days visiting her parents.

UNION CHURCH

UNION CHURCH, Nov. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerber and Mr. and Mrs. Leuchte have moved into their new home. John O'Donnell purchased their former home and yesterday a force of men, teams and three engines started to move the building on his premises in place of his home that was burned down last spring.

The past week or so new farm machinery has been purchased for use on the Lochbaum, Black, Madden and Barbian farms.

Walter Smiley will spend the next two or three weeks in Rock and Walworth counties tuning pianos.

Harold Wards attended a teachers' meeting at Rochester Friday.

Fur dealers were in the vicinity this week buying up raw furs.

CORLISS

CORLISS, Wis., Dec. 2.—Mrs. J. C. Turns and daughter, Edith, spent Saturday afternoon in Racine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hill and children spent Thanksgiving at Eagle, Wisconsin.

The Misses Etha Rody and Margaret Walsh spent the past few days with their parents at Whitewater.

Peter Brown is quite ill at St. Mary's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mahnik spent the week end at the home of his parents at Mantowoc, Wis.

Miss Hilda Hennessey was a Milwaukee visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Baumann and children spent Sunday in Racine.

Dr. Pechn expects to move in his new home by the first of the year.

Mr. Anton Heidenrich is slowly improving, after a serious operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Leslie Merrill, of Racine, spent Saturday and Sunday here.

SOMERS

SOMERS, Dec. 2.—The St. Paul company had a gang of men at work last week putting up the poles for the electric block system with which the road will be equipped in a short time.

J. H. Holmdahl and family of Racine spent Thursday and Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heidenrich.

Alfred Carratt purchased a horse in Milwaukee last week.

Ed Elishop and family of Chicago spent Thanksgiving with relatives in the village.

Herman J. Boelter was confined to his home last week on account of illness.

Martin Gherke will hold an auction sale at his home on the Burlington road on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 14. The roads during the past week have been in a fairly good condition which has been a great help to those who have had teaming to do.

The Busy Woman's Day

It begins early, ends late, and is full of work. She often has kitchen trouble without knowing it. Her back aches, and she is tired and worn out. Sleeps poorly, is nervous, has no appetite. Her bladder gives her trouble too. Buy her a bottle of and well Mrs. Lena Boyer, 12 Frederick St., Auburn, N. Y., says: "Three boxes of Foley Kidney Pills were all that was needed to make me strong and well. They are the best medicine made for kidney and bladder disorders. Try them. Red Cross Drug Store."