A Great Drama.

The production of Goethe's immortal tragedy, "Faust", which John Griffith will make at Adler's opera house on Thursday evening May 2nd is by far the most elaborate ever attempted of the play. The scenic environment with which he is surrounded, and the company in support of him have occupied the untiring efforts of his manager, Mr. A. Caldwell, for months. Manager Caldwell has had painted and designed a series of scenic pictures, which are said to excel anything of the kind ever displayed on this continent. In addition to the completeness of stage production Mr. Griffith's manager has surrounded him with one of the best companies ever called to the support of a tragic star. Reserved seat sale at Horn's. Prices 75, 50, 35 and 25.

Married at Grand Rapids.

At the Evangelical Lutheran church in Grand Rapids Wednesday forenoon, Miss Anna Overbeck of that city was married to John Anderson of this city in the presence of relatives and friends, the bride and groom being attended by Misses Hannah Heidler of this city and Bertha Overbeck, and Messrs. P. J. Lyons and Andrew Rumenopp. The ceremony was a very pretty one after which a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, the happy couple leaving later in the day for a wedding trip to Chicago and other points south. The bride is one of Grand Rapids' most estimable and popular young ladies and the groom is the genial conductor of the M. & S. E. who is known throughout the country as one of its best and most prominent citizens. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will occupy their new home on Cedar street in a short time.

THE LEADER FENCE MACHINE CO. St. Charles, Illinois.

Have opened up for business here in Marshfield, having rented the Derby building on Second street, across from Manson House, and will sell machines and build any kind of fence desired. The leader machine will build over fifty different styles of yard, stock, garden and hog fences, and is so simple that any one who can turn a fried stone can run it. Call and see the machine in operation and examine the many kinds of fence it builds. We do not sell territory but sell the machine on its own merits. As a useful article for the farmer The Leader Wire Fence Machine is the greatest invention of the age. Price of the machine complete, $15. It is the highest running machine on the market, and superior to all $25 machines of any make. Try it and be convinced, call and see it work.
