

Local

Times want ads bring results.
Reed the photo man. 52.

Have you a cold? If not, why not?
Are you a subscriber or a borrower?

F. R. Pollard left Friday for Milwaukee on business.

A. J. Campbell was at Appleton Thursday on business.

Ed. Ross of Park Falls was in the city Saturday on business.

A regular meeting of the council will be held next Tuesday evening.

The Roosevelt party in Pennsylvania has come to a peaceful end.

C. B. Edwards made a business trip to Grand Rapids Friday.

Mrs. Henry Wable returned Saturday from a trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Fred. Krahn is visiting friends at Waukesha this week.

W. H. Roddis left Sunday for Milwaukee on a short business trip.

E. B. Barr visited his mother at Milwaukee the latter part of the week.

See Reed for good pictures. 26tf.

Miss Lillian Anglim spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Oshkosh.

Porter Harney left Sunday for Madison to attend the University of Wisconsin.

Victor Nehs, who expects to practice law at Bayfield, was in town the last of this week.

There will be a district meeting of the Odd Fellows in Marshfield on Friday, October 3.

The Flora DeVoss company will give a special tencent matinee Saturday at three o'clock.

Mrs. E. E. Winch left Tuesday for Milwaukee to attend the State convention of the Eastern Star.

Have your watch, clock and Jewelry repaired at Mechlers. 51t5

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sheerin left Tuesday for Milwaukee to attend the convention of the Eastern Star.

A fine line of musical instruments in stock at Zweck's. Jewelry, pins, brooches, rings, watches and clocks repaired promptly and at low rates. 47tf

Josh Normington who runs the Normington Bros. steam laundry at Stevens Point, was in the city Saturday.

If you want anything on earth, send a quarter to The Times, and you are likely to get it through a want ad.

Max Wegner left Monday for Detroit, Mich. where he will contract if possible for his next years supply of Ford cars.

We are due for some fine autumn weather yet, especially since not all the farmers have their silos filled.

Miss Olga Grabe who has been visiting Miss Cora Weiland the past week, left for her home in Milwaukee Monday.

Miss Mae Holiday of Oshkosh was the guest of Mrs. Edward B. Barr over Saturday.

Miss Ella Eggebrecht leaves today for Chicago to study at the Michael Reese Hospital to become a trained nurse.

Mrs. Dr. Lind left for Stevens Point Monday where she will be joined by her sister and they will make a trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Walter Fufts came down Friday from Thorp with her little boy to have him examined by one of our local doctors.

F. Halsev Ambrose was duly installed as pastor of the First Presbyterian church last night. The services were impressive.

Christian Science services will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall next Sunday as usual, the subject for discussion being "Unreality."

Supt. C. W. Otto acted as referee for the football game at Stevens Point Saturday between Stevens Point and Waupaca High Schools.

The latest "Simmons" Waldemar chains are shown by E. F. Mechler, Jeweler. 51t5

Mrs. T. G. Grassie who has been visiting her son Geo. F. Grassie of this city, for the last few weeks, left for her home in Wauwatosa Tuesday.

Next Sunday Immanuel's Lutheran congregation will celebrate its annual harvest festival at the morning service, to be followed by holy communion.

The Flora DeVoss company is delighting large audiences at the New Adler opera house this week. The specialties between the acts are well recommended.

August broker, the well known Lindsey merchant, was in town Monday to meet his daughter, Miss Nellie, who had been visiting a couple of days at Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McMillan and party returned Saturday from their eastern trip, in the course of which they covered 6,000 miles. Two complete sets of auto tires were worn out.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Henderson expect to leave October 8 for Fillmore County, Minn., where Mr. Henderson's parents first settled, and they hope to visit the site of the old farm.

Alfred Drescher of Neillsville was one of the few Wisconsin people who drew claims in the government land drawing at Fort Smith, Mont., Thursday. The drawing was for Indian reservation land.

Charles J. Lundgren has improved the looks and arrangement of his men's store by tearing out the middle partition, making one large and airy room. Joseph Quinn has been engaged as salesman.

An epidemic of colds, grip and influenza has attacked the central west the last fortnight and the result is that everybody is getting the alphabet mixed up in trying to say "concert," "Monday," and "election."

Bracelet watches in different patterns and prices that are right at Mechlers. 51t5

Don't forget to attend the big two reel feature at the Unique theatre tonight and tomorrow night, entitled the Sea Dog a very dramatic subject of pathetic tenderness, showing the attachment of a little boy for an Old sailor.

Scott Babcock and Miss Mary Correl of the town of Bergen, near Rozellville, were united in marriage yesterday at 11:30 a. m. at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. L. T. Thom. The witnesses were Hollis Babcock and Miss Lulu Manley.

G. E. Harrington, the dentist, over Rembs & Sturm's furniture store. 51t5

The open season for prairie chicken and grouse closes this evening at sunset, while the partridge season starts today. Owing to wet weather the hunting has been poor the last few days, but the average for September has been unusually good.

The Paine Lumber company has announced its intention of removing part or all of its entire plant from Oshkosh to Antigo; to get closer to its timber and to escape unequal taxation. This would mean 3,000 fewer laboring men for Oshkosh and as many more for Antigo.

Dr. J. C. Hayward and Dr. K. W. Doege went to Wausau Thursday to attend a meeting of the Ninth Councilor District Medical society. Dr. Hayward states that Dr. H. S. Wahl of Stratford, who is intending to move to Wausau later on, is putting up a fine new home in Wausau.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will hold a rumage sale October 8, 9 and 10 in the Lahr building. Articles will be collected from members living on the east side, Monday and on the west side of Central avenue, Tuesday. Members are requested to have parcels ready.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Roddis entertained at a small dinner party Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Roddis' cousin, Miss M. E. Starr. Covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. K. W. Doege, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Roddis, Miss Frances Roddis, Miss Ella Kelley and ex-Gov. W. H. Upham.

Trade with Zweck, your jeweler. He has everything you wish for in watches, pins, rings, diamonds and fine silverware. 47tf

The genial boosters of Railway City Council No. 189, United Commercial Travelers, announce that they will give their annual ball at the armory on November 7. The general committee includes F. E. Tice, chairman, Ralph J. Baker, L. H. Schoenhofen, Oscar J. Hoffman and Edward Pustenberg. A fine attendance is assured.

Postmaster Everett A. Upham has sold his residence at the corner of Cedar and East Third streets, formerly the George H. Reynolds property, to Anton Kleinheinz. Possession will be given on November 1, and at that time Mr. Upham and family will move to their former home at 213 South Chestnut street, now occupied by G. N. Loughead and family.

An advertisement of a summer resort for sale appeared in The Times on September 10. On September 24 a letter was received from a man in Sioux City, Ia., inquiring about the proposition advertised and asking for photographs and details. When you advertise your wants, your property or goods in this paper you are almost sure of getting immediate results.

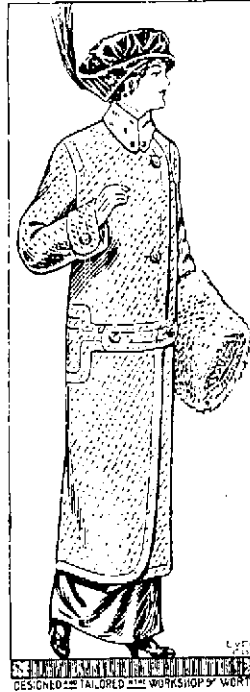

Women Who Demand Style Exclusiveness
Will Appreciate These Smart

New Styles For Fall

Nowhere else can the Ladies of Marshfield and vicinity find such smartness of style and perfection of fit in Tailored Suits and Coats as we offer here. They are fresh from the designing rooms of America's foremost creators of Women's Apparel. We have received new models that are smart and wonderfully fetching in every detail.

High Class Suits for Women & Misses

Womens Suits, navy blue and black in wool serge, beautifully made at $15.00
Women's Suits that are exceptional values in exclusive models at only $20 to $35.00

Womens, Misses and Children's Coats

Never before have we shown so many exceptional smart styles in Coats at prices we are offering this season. Greatest coat values ever offered—make it a point to see them. Beautiful models in rough materials for Junior's and Misses, $7.50 to $20.00

Women's Coats in all the new effects and models, $10 to $45

New Dress Goods and Dress Silks

that are astonishing values—we want you to see them. 26 in. Charmeuse Messaline, all shades, $1. 26 in. fancy Poplins, 75c. 40 in. Crepe du Chene, all colors, $1.50. Wool Suitings in plain and fancy, large line in beautiful qualities and styles. Brocades in velvets, silks, wool effects

Tiffault-Kamps Mercantile Company

THERE isn't anything too good to say about Le Revo corsets and there isn't anything too good to put into their manufacture. The makers of these wonderful corsets excel in everything that produces the finest in corsets; the style is distinctly Parisian and up to the minute; the materials are as fine as money can buy; the workmanship wonderfully perfect.

The model illustrated is designed for the average figure. It is made of a good quality batiste and has a handsome silk embroidery trim. It is very low in the bust, has slightly higher back and very long skirt. The entire front length is 17 inches, and the front clasp measure is 11 inches. The corset has rubber laces from bottom of front clasp to bottom of corset. Entire back length 21 inches; back wires 18 inches. It has three pairs of hose supporters. Sizes 18 to 30. PRICE, $5.00

Rose Brothers

'TIS A FACT!
The LaZarre Trio
—will be at the—
New Adler Opera House Oct. 6
3 NIGHTS COMMENCING MONDAY

Introducing Refined and Classy VAUDEVILLE
Featuring Baby LaZarre, the Child Wonder. In conjunction with an elegant Program of new PHOTO PLAYS. Continuous shows, 7:30 to 10.
Admission, - - - Children 5c, Adults 15c

Reed the photo man has the experience and the knack of making photographs that please, whether groups, wedding pictures or cabinets. Also commercial work. 51tf

Wednesday nights show, "The Thief" (at the opera house) was one of the most vitally entrancing dramas it has ever been our good fortune to witness. In plot it is simple and direct, in action it leaves no "dead spots", or holes in the air. If more young couples could see plays like the "The Spendthrift" and this one, and see them before marriage, many divorces, disappointments and failures would never occur.

Make it a point to call at Zweck's jewelry store before you buy anything in the line of jewelry, silverware, clocks and musical instruments. He always has what you want or he will get it for you. Fair prices and square dealing. 47tf

John Strange of Menasha, former lieutenant governor and prominent in last year's Bull Moose campaign, has been sued in the circuit court at Oshkosh by Mrs. Alice McMillen, whose late son Robert McMillen Jr. married Kathryn Strange, daughter of Mr. Strange. The basis of the action is a claim that Mr. Strange used false representations to induce Mrs. McMillen to sell him $25,000 worth of Fox River Paper stock on the installment plan. The parties are well known to many Marshfield people.

STAADT.

Ed Kautzer was a Marshfield caller Saturday.

Leo Platteter of Stratford spent Sunday at the home of Chas. Hughes.

Geo Bargabos returned from St. Paul Wednesday with a carload of young stock.

Dave Reeve is kept pretty busy with the building of his new barn which he intends building this fall. The masons are hard at work on the foundation now.

The Carls' Bros. are kept on the go with their new thresh machine. Threshing will not be thru with so quick this year as the grain crops are splendid like all other crops.

The majority of the men and Jrs. were kept quite busy for the last week with their musical instruments as there has been quite a few weddings taking place here of late and some more still expected.

Joe Kautzer his brother Ed and B. J. Trimbom were busy for a short time Sunday breaking a few Western horses which is not always done as easy as expected. But nobody was hurt but of course the horses got the worst of the deal as the three trainers above mentioned are used to such work.

Fall Announcement

We take pleasure in notifying you that our new line of Fall and Holiday Styles is now ready for your inspection. It comprises special ideas in regular and Holiday Gift Portraits, and with our expert workmanship and the general tonal quality of our Photographs, we feel safe in assuring you that a visit to our Studio will be worth while.

.....K. F. Davison

The Photographer in your town.

EXCLUSIVE MILLINERY!

We lead in style, quality and price. Hats with taste. We can make anything and everything in ladies head-wear. Note the distinction between hats purchased at the Hat Shop and other millinery stores. Then note the difference in price. Every dollar you spend at our millinery store has the purchasing power of two dollars in millinery value.

A Look Will Convince the Most Skeptical

The Hat Shop Co.

Miss Kathrine Kasper formerly with Miss Kugle Mgr.

QUALITY COUNTS

That's what you get when you let
JOHNSON'S ELECTRIC SHOP

do your wiring, hang your fixtures, and do other electrical work. Call and see them at 121 S. Central Ave., or Phone No. 12 Marshfield, Wis.

