

THE LATE JOSEPH MERTLE.

VEDDER-SHERMAN.

Green and Gold Wedding Celebrated at the Sherman Residence August 18th.

A very pretty home wedding was carried out at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sherman at 1135 Clark street, when their oldest daughter, Miss Alta Sherman, became the bride of Dr. James B. Vedder of Marshfield. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Clarence I. Andrews of Fond du Lac, an uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. J. A. Stemen of this city and Rev. F. B. Sanford of Ripon, an uncle of the groom. Miss Helen Sherman, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor and George Blanchard of Colby as best man. The wedding music was played by Miss Nina Coye, and the following young ladies, former schoolmates, clad in "beautiful robes of white," were present as special attendants: Misses Mabel Ennor, Margaret Southwick, Marion Vosburg, Gladys Park, Beulah Nelson, Winnie Shumway, Edith Hartwell, Maymie Huff, Ethel Coye and Geneva Hodsdon. The bride was very becomingly attired in a gown of white liberty satin, trimmed with Russian embroidered net. The principal ornament was a beautiful gold filigree pin studded with pearls, a remembrance from the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and white sweet peas. The maid of honor wore pink liberty satin made up with embroidered net and carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. Eleanor Sherman, the bride's sister, and Ruth Sherman, a cousin, attended as flower girls.

The reception hall and parlors were decorated in golden glow, outlined against banks of asparagus ferns, palms and other deep green background and made a very handsome appearance. The reception rooms on the upper floor and the dining room were done in pink and white sweet peas and the spacious porches in nasturtiums. The decoration scheme was carefully worked out by the Wahp-si-pin-ni-kan club.

The wedding ceremony and brief reception were followed by a six o'clock dinner, served to a company of about forty guests. The dinner was served under the direction of Mrs. P. J. Kellar, assisted by Mesdames C. F. Raymond, P. B. Rivers, A. M. Nelson, J. W. Glennon, J. A. Slothower, O. Parmeter, J. A. Ennor, and the Misses Fannie Sawyer and Anna Slothower.

The out-of-town guests included the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Vedder of Marshfield, parents of the groom; Dr. Harry Vedder, his brother, and wife and daughter of Edgar; Frank Upham, an uncle, and his wife and sons, Charles and Ralph, of Marshfield, Mrs. C. A. Hamilton, an aunt, from Marshfield, Mrs. Sarah Upham, an aunt, from Marshfield; Harry Vedder, an uncle, and his wife and daughter of Waukesha; Rev. E. B. Sanford, an uncle, and his daughter, Frances, from Ripon; Rev. C. I. Andrews, an uncle of the bride, and his wife and little sons from Fond du Lac; Mrs. F. A. Richmond, a cousin, from Knowlton; Miss Vinnie Hewitt, a friend of the bride, from Oshkosh; Mrs. A. O. Soule and son, Lawrence, family friends, from Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Vedder will leave tonight by auto for a visit of several weeks among the northern lakes, after which they will go to Marshfield to reside in their own handsome and newly furnished residence on Cherry street, where they will be at home after Oct. 1.

The bride has resided in Stevens Point with her parents for several years and graduated from the Normal in 1905, and has since been engaged very successfully for four years in public school work at Marshfield, where she has made an extensive and favorable acquaintance. During her student days at the Normal she won considerable fame as an orator and won the state inter-normal oratorical contest for 1905. Dr. Vedder is a graduate of the Northwestern Medical college in Chicago, class of 1905, and has since been successfully engaged in practice in Marshfield. Their new relation in life seems to be undertaken under auspicious circumstances and they bear away with them to their new home the most hearty congratulations and best wishes of their entire local personal acquaintance.—Stevens Point Journal.

Reports of Black River Falls and other towns of that section indicate that the gang who have been burglarizing dental offices in this state for several years are on their rounds again. They have raided this city successfully on two occasions in the past.

Rural route patrons are urged to have their names plainly marked on their boxes and the name should be gone over from time to time to keep the lettering fresh. Names on rural boxes are a good advertisement and also add much to the interest of travelers.

The Young People's Christian Endeavor Society will have charge of the service next Sabbath evening at the Presbyterian church. Live reports of the National convention will be given by the delegates. Good music will be rendered. All are invited to attend.

The direction of the ball grounds at the fair grounds has been changed and the grand stand under the new plan is directly behind the home plate. There is a little more danger from fouls but aside from this the change is a great improvement from the spectator's standpoint.

The Laemle Tailor-Made

Simple, Serviceable, Beautifully Tailored.

THE main feature of these suits are style and service. They are for women who want to dress well on a few dollars. Special designers devote their entire time to these suits—they demand exceptional skill as they depend wholly on line, material and tailoring for their effect.

But it is their simplicity that makes them so practical. We have found more women interested in these styles than any others. There are so many occasions when a good looking tailored suit is exactly the thing to wear. But when you want a tailored suit, you want it right.

These "Laemle" models are made of the new materials that will be extremely popular this fall; in all the the late fashionable colorings and are absolutely correct in all the little details that count for so much with a well gowned women. The style is not pressed in—IT IS IN THE CUT.

Exquisitely tailored, they invariably make a women look well.

The fellow who has a flourishing garden behind the house is proud of himself these days, and likes the feel of the words to say that he had green corn or ripe tomatoes out of his garden. The other day Will Campman said that his dinner was made up of new potatoes, beans, peas, and one of his neighbors chickens, all out of his own garden. —Neilesville Times.

E. A. Gallet has the score card privilege and will issue cards for each day of the meeting. The entry list is large and the necessity of a card to enjoy the races will be greater than ever. Secretary Pan-kow has purchased new numbers which will be displayed on the side of the horse instead of the arm of the rider, and will be much plainer and more conspicuous.

Herman Kaufmann's orchard is a sight worth going miles to see at this time, and judging from his crop the apple output in the vicinity of Marshfield will be very large. Mr. Kaufmann has about one hundred trees bearing and all are loaded with fine fruit. He intends eventually to build his orchard up to one thousand trees which will make it a most profitable piece of property.

Color Sergeant George A. Huntzicker of this city is making a great record with the Wisconsin marksmen at Camp Perry. In the preliminary practice he ranked 6th with a total of 307 points, and his score of 47 out of a possible 50 at 1000 yards was the high mark. The team will make a good showing in the competition this week and should rank 5th or better among the teams from the different states and the regular army.

Alderman A. L. MacFarlane's new residence now nearing completion on Oak street is fitted with a novelty in chimney construction, the large chimney extending from basement above the roof was made entirely of cement or concrete, the projection above the roof being neatly paneled. This style of chimney has a marked advantage over brick in being absolutely tight and spark-proof. It is poured in molds and can be built very rapidly.
