

Local

All About the Town

It's here. Leap year, 1916.

Nearly every store in town is busy taking inventory.

Lisle Swartling was a Tracy, Minn. visitor last week.

Torkild Bille will leave tonight for Duluth on business.

F. R. Pollard left Monday for Milwaukee on business.

"The Adventures of Wallingford"—page six of this issue.

Miss Irene Colvin visited friends in Grand Rapids Thursday.

John Eimmerman of Junction City was in the city Monday.

Miss Rosa Beck of Milwaukee visited her parents the past week.

Miss Hazel Farley spent New Year's Day at Wausau visiting friends.

J. A. Jorgenson of Oshkosh spent yesterday in the city on business.

C. W. Rice of the Unique theater was a Stevens Point visitor Tuesday.

All the banks were closed Saturday, New Year's being a legal holiday.

Miss Erma White of Eau Claire is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Richmond.

Joseph Whittington, the ice man, transacted business in Stevens Point Tuesday.

Leo Leitz of this city visited with friends and relatives in Wausau New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Neumann entertained a small company of friends Friday evening.

Mrs. John Jacobus and Mrs. John Andreas of Wausau visited relatives here New Year's Day.

Glen Armstrong of Greenwood stopped off in this city Monday while on his way to Park Falls.

H. Livesey of Greenwood spent some time in this city Monday while on his way to Fond du Lac.

Miss Elizabeth Bast of Colby visited at the home of Mrs. M. Tremmel on New Year's Day.

Claude Hussin of Stevens Point attended the Bushey-Company A basketball game New Year's night.

James Hishon, Walter Deering and Emil Wandell of Kaukauna were New Year guests of Bernard Coggins.

Frank Lukas of Jefferson visited friends in this city the forepart of the week. He has not lost his smile.

William Baer, employed at Upham's furniture store is on the sick list this week with an attack of la grippe.

Winston Bille returned home Saturday after spending his holiday vacation at Superior visiting relatives.

Miss Margaret Foster visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Howarth in Wausau the past week.

Peter Leonhard and wife of Greenleaf after a visit of two weeks at the home of G. J. Leonhard, left Monday for home.

Otto Joenks who has been visiting relatives in this city since Sunday returned Tuesday to Chicago to resume his work.

Miss Laura Pflum, who is teaching at Owen, returned there Sunday, after spending her vacation at the home of her parents.

Miss Cora Cammers who is now in the millinery business at Wausau was a New Year's visitor at the home of her folks here.

Emil Tremmel, formerly of this city but now located at Minneapolis, was in the city on a visit to his mother, Mrs. M. Tremmel.

Miss Lucile Tack of Spencer visited friends in this city Monday, while on her way to Sinsinawa where she attends St. Claire college.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Bille Sr., are absent on an extended visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Morrisette at Marion.

Charles Haas of Glendive, Mont., and Mr. and Mrs. Gust Haas of Circle, Mont., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rhyner the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Green of Kaukauna, after spending a few days at Loyal visiting friends stopped off in this city a short time before leaving for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Roddis entertained a few friends at an informal party on New Year's night. Bridge was enjoyed and a dainty supper was served.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. society will be held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Wright on Friday. All ladies interested are cordially invited.

The new year marked the season's first thunderstorm. And it was a real one at that. Rain and slippery sidewalks were in vogue by the time Saturday was over.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Schaefer entertained a dozen guests at a stag dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Schaefer's brother, Dr. Stanley J. Seeger of Minneapolis.

A. J. Friedrich of Menasha, formerly residing at Auburndale, spent New Year's Day in this city. In the evening he attended the dance given by Company A at the armory.

Franklin Wood of Chicago left Thursday for his home after visiting at the home of his brother George Wood for a few days. While in the city he attended the Alumni banquet.

The Misses Monica and Frances Tice of this city and Mary Schultz of Veefkind, who are students at the Stevens Point Normal school returned Tuesday to resume their studies.

J. Rufus Wallingford had 'em all hear—and you ought to hear about it. Read the story, starting in today's paper; then see the pictures at the Adler Friday evening. Nothing like it.

Norman Hahn, formerly employed at the Western Union telegraph office, is now employed at the First National bank as messenger boy in place of Kenneth Cook who left last week for St. Paul.

Messrs. Emil Kliner, Otto Schermann and George Lang left Friday for Milwaukee to inspect the latest in moving picture equipment which they will purchase for their new play house.

After a period of idleness, the city schools opened their doors Monday to commence work in earnest. A two weeks' vacation was enjoyed by all pupils of both the graded and high schools.

Miss Marion Parrette of Spencer stopped off in this city Monday on her way to Stevens Point to resume her studies at the Normal after spending her vacation at the home of her mother.

For artistic beauty and usefulness you will find our stock of sterling silver and silver plated ware exceptionally complete. Our established on every article that we sell. Zweck's for jewelry.

The continued mild weather of the present week is rapidly making the snow disappear from the streets. Sleighing, not of the best all year, was given a severe setback by the present weather.

The annual stock-holders meeting of the Central Wisconsin State Fair association will be held at the City hall, Marshfield, at 10 o'clock, in the forenoon on Wednesday, January 12. R. R. Williams, Secretary.

According to the Word and Works magazine, edited by the Rev. Irl R. Hicks the astronomical outlook for January calls for a prolonged spell of threatening unsettled weather from the opening day to the second week in January.

Sickening headaches, constipation, indicate unhealthy condition of stomach and bowels. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea assists the bowels to work naturally, thus aiding your health in general. Begin to-night.—Sexton Brothers.

The Frauen-Verein of St. Paul's Evangelical church will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grauman at 307 West C street. All members are requested to be present as election of officers for the coming year will take place.

Marshfield's first community tree was disrobed of its finery Monday and then chopped into small pieces and dragged away. All during the week it was lighted up at night and many comments were heard on the beauty of the tree.

Sunday was a bad day for churchgoers or any other pedestrians for that matter. The icy walks caused many people to take to the roads, but the latter also proved somewhat slippery. Many falls were taken, by many people, in many ways and manner.

A teaspoonful of fresh herbs and leaves in a cup of hot water and you have a natural medicine for stomach, liver and bowels. Relieves headaches, sour stomach and constipation. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Not drastic, does not gripe.—Sexton Bros.

If you aren't in business Wallingford will open your eyes; if you are in business, he will teach you several valuable, instructive and amusing lessons. The gentleman makes his first bow on page six of The Times this week, and will appear again on Friday evening at the Adler.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barr have been entertaining over part of the holidays Mrs. Bertha E. Barr of Milwaukee; Lieut. and Mrs. James Lamport and son James Jr. of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. and Mrs. A. L. Brigham and daughter Carol, and Miss Millia Barr, all of Two Harbors, Minn.

Monday marked the exodus of college students and the influx of teachers. All outgoing trains had students aboard from different parts of the state and here they were joined by the college contingent of this city. Most of the teachers were in the city Sun-

Now is Time to Save Money

...the...

After Inventory we find we have a big accumulation of REMNANTS and Odds and Ends in our various departments. Buy now and get some of the good things we have to offer in Remnants, Odds and Ends that we are closing out regardless of original cost. Make your selections early and get the best values ever offered.

REMNANTS

of Wool Dress Goods, Silks, Lining, Embroideries, Outing Flannels, Flannelette, Silkoline, Prints, Gingham, Shirtings, Etc., all marked down very low for quick selling.

ODDS AND ENDS and Broken Lots in Shoes, Hosiery, Underwear, Gloves, Skirts, Waists, Corsets, Sweaters, Shirts, Etc., all reduced to make things move quickly.

Men! Right now is the time to purchase Your Winter O'coat

Fur, Fur Lined or Cloth. All greatly marked down that you can not resist buying. Unusual values. We have cut the price lower on Men's and Boys' Winter Suits and Overcoats but we have not cut the quality, nor changed the style. Men's $15.00 Overcoats, extra quality, now $10.00 Men's $35.00 Fur Lined Overcoats, special $24.50 Boys' $5.00 Overcoats, extra heavy, special $3.95 Youths $10.00 Overcoats, every one a bargain $7.75

Women's Coats and Suits

All Radically Reduced.

Women's Coats—Every one marked down. One lot Women's Coats, all good styles, this sale $3.98 Children's Coats, one lot to close at only $2.50 20 Per Cent. Saving on all Women's and Misses' Suits.

Tiffault-Kamps Merc. Co.

day, ready to begin their work early Monday morning.

Ralph Wood spent Thursday at Grand Rapids and while in that city played with the Alumni team of the Grand Rapids high school against the regular school team. When the game ended the Alumni found themselves on the small end of the score which gave the high school team the game by a 10 to 15 count.

"The Fox Woman," presented at the Unique theater Sunday afternoon and evening, proved to be a feature of extraordinary value and as a consequence was enjoyed by packed houses at three performances. The picture is one of the all-star features being presented at the Unique every Sunday. It was produced by the Mutual film corporation and was complete in four parts. The Japanese scenery was especially pleasing.

TWO BLOCKS ON FOURTH ST.

At the monthly meeting of the common council which was held Tuesday evening, a petition to pave Fourth street from Chestnut street to Walnut street was favorably acted upon. The paving plans for 1915 already adopted provide that the block from Central avenue to Chestnut street be paved.

BAKERVILLE

Bakerville, Jan. 3.—Roman Binder of Oshkosh spent the holidays at his home here.

Mary Zinthefer is helping at Louis Kasberger's, Sr. whose wife and daughter both are ill.

Misses Catherine and Anna Gieschner left Tuesday, the former to teach at Pittsville and the latter to attend the teachers training school at Grand Rapids.

A party was given at the home of John Sicklinger in honor of Mrs. Sicklinger, at which many friends were present. The evening was spent very pleasantly and at midnight refreshments were served.

Joseph Reigel was sawing wood for Chas. Zinthefer Tuesday.

Peter Bell is on the sick list. Max Kasberger and Nick Michels sawed logs for Louis Kasberger on Thursday.

Louis Kasberger's broken shoulder is recovering nicely.

Mr. Schi of Marshfield hospital was here Sunday selling calendars.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Most Effectual.

"I have taken a great many bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and every time it has cured me. I have found it most effectual for a hacking cough and for colds. After taking it a cough always disappears," writes J. R. Moore, Lost Valley, Ga. Obtainable everywhere.

HEWITT

Hewitt, Jan. 3.—The fifth annual meeting of the Hewitt Local Union, No. 5881 of the A. S. of E. will be held at Hewitt in the town hall on Monday, Jan. 10th, 1916, at 8 o'clock sharp. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss co-operative methods and to elect officers for the coming year. All members are requested to attend this meeting. Refreshments and lunch will be served.

Joe Wenzel left for Stetsonville last week to visit friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Durst of Marshfield were visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Durst over New Year's Day.

Miss Josephine Weigl of Marshfield was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. L. Varsho over Sunday.

If Wallingford and Blackie Daw can't make you laugh you never have learned how. See the pictures at the Adler, read the story in the paper. Starts this week.

ADLER THEATRE

ONE NIGHT ONLY
Monday, January 10

LYMAN H. HOWLAND
PRESENTS A TRIP TO THE
CALIFORNIA EXPOSITIONS AND THROUGH THE PANAMA CANAL
HOLLAND
BELGIUM
NORWAY
SWEDEN
PARIS PARKS
MANY OTHERS

PRICES 25c, 35c, 50c.
SEAT SALE OPENS SATURDAY AT LIESE'S

WE extend our sincerest wishes for your Happiness, Health and Prosperity during the New Year.

Modern Sanitary Dairy

PHONE 648 PASTEURIZED MILK AND CREAM

—SEE—
Frank Winner
AND MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY
Adler Theatre -- To-Night
"Absentminded Ludwig"
Thursday—"The Biggest Man in Town"
LAST PERFORMANCE
Prices 25c, 35c, 50c.
SEATS ON SALE AT LIESE'S