

SCOTLAND THE BRAVE

John Macdonald formed the Production of "Scotland the Brave" several years ago, after being part of the original production in the early seventies..with a cast of 21..the show has appeared throughout NSW in theatre and clubs with great success..Also a smaller version of the show has toured extensively through NSW,Victoria, and South Australia.

Scotland the Brave is a superb Tribute to Scotland, and combines the great talents of some of Australia's best Celtic performers. From the moment the curtain goes up after the stirring Overture ,to the entrance of the Pipers and Drummers from The Illawarra Pipe Band - this show is sure to please!

John Macdonald Scotland's International acclaimed Piano Accordionist is no stranger to Australian audiences. He has released many Albums,of which several have gone "Gold", and have been released throughout the World. He has appeared throughout Australia in every Concert, Cabaret, and Club venue, as well as his many appearances overseas including The Middle East, New Zealand, the Far East,and Hong Kong.John has also appeared regularly on all major American based Cruise Ships. In 1999 he was honoured by accordionists throughout the world, in recognition of his outstanding services to the accordion movement, and the Accordion. John's toe tapping music is a Highlight of the show.His 50th Album"Years Apart" was recently released.

The host of the Show is Al Showman..who brings on stage his fine comedy and superb singing voice.Al has no need for gimmicks, for he is that true rarity..a true entertainer from the moment he walks on stage, and takes control.His wealth of comedy and vocal talents have earned him a truly enviable reputation worldwide. He has appeared throughout Scotland and England working in many theatres including many summer seasons and Pantomimes.

Avril Stuart..Topline Scottish Vocal Entertainer presents her own style of Dynamic singing and makes a most welcome return to Scotland the Brave and the Sydney Club Circuit.

No Scottish show would be complete without Highland Dancers, and this show features the "Sydney Blairgowrie Dancers" .They are known Australia wide for there first class Dancing and Choreography, and combine with John Macdonald for some stirring Music and Dance segments throughout the show.

So whether you have Scottish blood in your veins or not, we know you will enjoy this vibrant toe tapping production !! and the Grand Finale of TWENTY ONE PERFORMERS ON STAGE !..and finishing with a Tribute in music and song, you will be shouting for more..don't miss this one !!!!
